1. a.	The file contains 8,328 folders on individual U.S. persons (citizens, resident aliens) and 2,196 volumes consisting of official and "soft" subject files and so-called sensitive files (i.e., organizations/activities), individual documents, and the index related to these collections which were established under project CHAOS during the period 1967-1974. The files were opened to maintain information bearing on possible foreign Communist exploitation of dissention in the United States, primarily concerning the Vietnam War. Subjects of the folders were U.S. citizens and organizations involved in dissident activities in the United States.
b.	No more than 488 of the above 8,328 files on U.S. persons are of continuing foreign intelligence or counter-intelligence interest, the disposition of which will be in accordance with the Directorate for Operations records control schedule which was approved by the Archivist of the United States on 1 August 1977. Continued maintenance of the remaining files set forth above, including the related index covered by this disposal request conflicts with the provisions of the Privacy Act as well as Executive Order 11905.		Disposition as authorized in NC1-263-77-10, Part B, item 1.
